Wentworth Accommodation Camp – Progress Update

Key Points

- The development of the 668-bed Wentworth Accommodation camp is well-advanced and on schedule
- Contract commenced on 18 January 2021, at which date 70 beds were available
- Upgrade of services and expansion of capacity underway, matching the installation of accommodation capacity
- At present, there are 164 beds available
- A further 176 beds have been delivered, undergoing installation/assembly
- Expect to complete above installation by end-March, for a total of 340 available beds and related infrastructure
- Balance of 328 beds (for a total of 668) will be available for occupation in late May/June, assuming no delays in deliveries or other unforeseen issues

Labour and training specialist RBR Group (ASX: RBR) is pleased to present a photographic update on the progress of the Wentworth Accommodation Camp Project underway in Palma. The details of this project are covered in prior ASX releases dated 26 October 2020, 26 November 2020 and 28 January 2021.
